PLACES TO VISIT IN NORTHERN KENTUCKY

RABBIT HASH

Rabbit Hash, KY 41091
(15.7 miles)

This quaint little town is located on the Ohio River, with gorgeous views of the river. It only has about 315 people living there, but it has a unique atmosphere unlike any other town you've ever visited. Oh yeah, and their mayor is a dog (Wilbur, a French Bulldog), so you should expect plenty of character in Rabbit Hash. Experience its never-ending charm in this small-town day trip in Kentucky. The Rabbit Hash Historic District is listed on the national Register of Historic Places. Get a soda from the General Store or grab a barbecue sandwich from The Scalded Hog and sit by the river to watch the boats.

BIG BONE LICK STATE PARK

3380 Beaver Road
Union, KY 41091
(11.4 miles)

Big Bone Lick's museum and exhibits are fresh and new. See exciting new displays on paleontology, Ordovician geology, ice age mammals and Native American history. Mammoths are believed to have been drawn to this location by a salt lick deposited around the sulfur springs. Visit the gift shop, hiking trails, miniature golf and picnic grounds. Take a ½ mile hike to see live Bison roaming the area.

JANE'S SADDLEBAG

13989 Ryle Road
Union, KY 41091
859-384-6617
(14.4 miles)

Jane's Saddlebag is a place where history and nature come alive. Located in the fascinating Big Bone Lick area of northern Kentucky, Jane's Saddlebag is a reconstructed "Saddlebag" historical structure. This heritage tourism destination offers 35 acres of historical structures, friendly farm animals, a restaurant with homemade food and desserts, a Wine Shop, a General Store and much more! Jane's Saddlebag draws thousands of guests each year.
